athletic and academic communities.	relationship with LSU Athletics.	the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student Athletes such as Major Decisions Symposium. We also support and assist LSU Athletics employees pursuit of graduate degrees. Most recently with the change in personnel in many of the departments in LSU Athletics, there have been meetings with the new personnel to continue to foster the relationship and in some instances build that relationship for the first time.
------------------------------------	----------------------------------	--	--

OEG 3 - Accept assessment as an important vital tool to ensure the program is meeting goals.

Reporting	The assessment coordinator will report data annually.	Sport Administration/Management annual assessment data are maintained in Task Stream at the Office of Assessment and Evaluation.	Meets expectation.

OEG 4 - Provide opportunities for undergraduate and graduate student professional growth.

Research Opportunities	Graduate students in the Ph.D. program will publish in top ranked journals and make presentations both internationally and nationally. 100% of doctoral students will complete at least one presentation or accepted publication.	All returning doctoral students either published or had papers accepted in journals. Multiple presentations (i.e., over 10) were collectively made at national and international conferences such as: College Sport Research Institute, NASSM, and Applied Sport Management Association. Also one student received a NASSM Student Research Grant.	Exceeds expectations
Professional development activities	Opportunities for professional development.	There are several in-service opportunities for graduate students hosted by the SOK or university graduate school.	Meets expectations

		There is a KIN 7999 seminar course – Effective Teaching in Higher Education that the Ph.D. students have enrolled in.
Volunteer work opportunities	Students will engage in opportunities that enhance the community.	As volunteer opportunities become more available after the pandemic year, the undergraduate and graduate students have volunteered for work/athletic events on-campus, bowl games in New Orleans, and in their own hometowns. The undergraduate students did complete mini-internships (KIN 2999) during the fall, 2021 and spring, 2022. The Sport Administration Association (SAA) continued to have guest speakers – the meetings transitioned from virtual to in-person during the academic year.	Meets expectations
OEG 5 - To continuously improve teaching, learning and research productivity.
Demonstrate through faculty teaching evaluations and course elective offerings.	Faculty will demonstrate productivity in teaching, learning and discovery.	Teaching evaluations were above 4.0 for the 2021-2022 year.	Meets expectations.
Demonstrate through faculty publications and presentations;	Faculty will publish in top ranked journals and make presentations both internationally and nationally.	See OEG 1	Exceeds expectations
OEG 6 - To explore, nurture and strengthen partnerships with community and area sport organizations and businesses.
Input from Advisory Board	Commit to an annual meeting with advisory board.	Hold an annual meeting with Advisory Board in the fall. There was not an annual meeting in the fall, 2021. Will work on reconvening an Advisory Board in the academic year 2022-2023 to receive input for additions to the curriculum and on	Does not meet expectation.

		addressing ethical and diversity issues.
Data on partnerships (internships, volunteer opportunities; both formal and informal)	Students and faculty will explore, nurture and strengthen partnerships with the community.	Internship sites: LSU Athletics (various teams and departments), LSU Recreation, LSU Residential Life, Baton Rouge Recreation, Baton Rouge Soccer, etc. Many out-of-state internships in over 29 states.	Meets expectations.
