Please use this Google Form to choose your hearing time.

Please arrive 10 minutes prior to your chosen hearing time (School of Music, Room 115).

Music Majors - Prepare a solo of your choice (art song, aria, or other classical repertoire).

Non-Music Majors - Sing either "Amazing Grace" or "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

All Majors - Hearings will consist of a brief vocalization and sight-singing.

An accompanist will be provided.

No prior choral experience is necessary.

We are committed to providing each student with an outstanding choral music experience.
Please contact us with any questions that you may have.

We look forward to singing with you soon!

A CAPPELLA CHOIR - MWF - 12:30-2:20 p.m. - MUS 4236

- The premier touring ensemble of LSU. This internationally recognized choir has been praised throughout the United States and Europe. The LSU A Cappella Choir prides itself on masterful programming and diversity of style.

LSU CHORALE - MWF - 2:30-3:20 p.m. - MUS 4233

- The LSU Chorale is comprised of soprano and alto voices from all academic disciplines within the university. It is the second oldest choral organization on campus, founded in 1935. This chorus performs a wide variety of repertoire both on campus and in the local community. Past performances have included singing at the LSU French House, the Louisiana American Choral Directors Association Convention, and LSU-Shreveport.

LSU TIGER GLEE CLUB - MWF - 3:30-4:20 p.m. - MUS 4232

- The LSU Tiger Glee Club is comprised of tenor and bass voices from all academic disciplines within the university. As the oldest choir on the LSU campus (founded in 1916), the Tiger Glee Club performs a wide variety of literature ranging from standard choral masterworks to spirituals and folksongs. In addition to its regular concert(s) each semester, the Tiger Glee Club is frequently asked to perform for civic organizations and athletic events such as the LSU basketball team and the LSU Baseball team.

LSU GOSPEL CHOIR - MWF - 4:30-5:20 p.m. - MUS 4230

- Recently honored as an LSU historical treasure, the LSU Gospel Choir performs a variety of gospel music, from today's Christian contemporary to traditional southern gospel, and is in constant demand statewide for public, private, and corporate events.
