

Study Abroad & Global Opportunity Funding

Scholarships for Study Abroad

- LSU Study Abroad Scholarship: Open to domestic and international students at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Students must be enrolled at LSU and degree-seeking in order to be considered for this award. Selected recipients will receive one-time scholarships of $1,500.00 to be used towards LSU study abroad programs. Please email studyabroad@lsu.edu for more information.
- Annette Kade Scholarship: Open to students who are participating in an ISEP exchange and who will be studying in French or German at an ISEP member institution in Austria, France, the French Antilles, Germany, Reunion Island, or Switzerland. Students must have a demonstrated financial need.
- Benjamin A. Gilman Scholarship Programs: A grant program that enables students with financial need to study or intern abroad, thereby gaining skills critical to U.S. national security and economic competitiveness. Open to U.S. citizens who are undergraduate students and who receive Federal Pell Grant funding.
 - The Gilman - McCain Scholarship provides awards of $5,000 to child dependents of active duty service members to study or intern abroad on credit-bearing programs. To qualify, you must be an undergraduate student and a U.S. citizen, receive some form of Title IV federal financial aid, and participate in a program that is at least 21 days long.
 - The Gilman Critical Need Language Award: Students who are already applying for a Gilman scholarship and who plan to study a language that is classified as “critical need” can apply for an additional award of $3,000. (Note: You must also apply for and meet the requirements for the Gilman scholarship). See the scholarship link for a list of critical languages.
 - The Gilman - DAAD Scholarship provides scholarships for exceptional U.S. undergraduate students to study and/or intern for academic credit in Germany through the Gilman Program.
- Boren Awards: Provides funding for U.S. undergraduate students to study less commonly taught languages in world regions critical to U.S. interests and underrepresented in study abroad, including Africa, Asia, Central and Eastern Europe, Latin America, and the Middle East.

- Corinne Jeannine Schillings Foundation Scholarships: These scholarships support undergraduate Silver or Gold Award Girl Scouts who plan to study abroad. $1,000 is provided directly to the winners upon verification that they have begun their study abroad programs. Those awarded must maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0.
- Diversity Abroad Overseas Ambassador Scholarship: Offers $500 scholarships for fall and spring semesters as well as summer term. Five scholarships are available for the fall semester, five for spring, and two for summer. Students going abroad for the full fall, spring, or summer terms are eligible to apply. Economically disadvantaged students, first-generation students, students with disabilities, and ethnically and racially diverse students are strongly encouraged to apply.
- Freeman Asia: Funding for undergraduates who receive need-based financial aid and have been accepted into a study abroad program in East or Southeast Asia.
- Fund for Education Abroad (FEA) Scholarships: FEA seeks to provide scholarships and ongoing support to students who are underrepresented among current U.S. study abroad populations. Funding is available for U.S. citizens with financial need who wish to study abroad. Students who represent a group that is traditionally underrepresented in study abroad are especially encouraged to apply. Individuals who complete the application by the deadline will automatically be considered for all scholarships funded by FEA for which they are eligible. Scholarships include:
 - Access Partner Scholarships – awarded to minority and first-generation students
 - Hiliary Echo Douglas Memorial Scholarship – for students who plan to study in Vietnam or within other Southeast Asian cultures

Women, members of minority groups historically underrepresented in the Foreign Service, and students with financial need are encouraged to apply.
- Samuel Huntington Public Service Award: Provides a $15,000 stipend for a graduating college senior to pursue one year of public service anywhere in the world (may be used domestically or internationally).

Funding Domestic Exchange through NSE

The National Student Exchange (NSE) program provides two payment options for tuition and fees, often reducing the costs of exchange.

If you are considering a Canadian domestic exchange, you can also apply for the Killam Fellowship. Killam Fellows spend a semester or a full year as an exchange student in Canada. The program offers . . .

- A cash award of $5,000 for a semester
- A competitive health benefits package
- The opportunity to participate in Canadian academic and cultural programs outside of your host city
