ELIGIBILITY

- Full-time LSU A&M employees, and
- Full-time (100% effort) for at least one year prior to application, and
- Approval from immediate supervisor and department head.

PROVISIONS

- Beginning with January 2020 enrollment, eligible employees may apply for a partial tuition exemption of 70 percent of online tuition (not including fees) for job-related undergraduate and graduate online degree programs. Participants are responsible for 30 percent of tuition costs plus all fees.

- The partial tuition exemption is available to participants for up to 6 college credit hours per semester at the graduate level or 12 college credit hours per semester at the undergraduate level.

- The number of participants will be limited to no more than 20% of the total enrollment per program on a first come, first serve basis.

- The partial tuition exemption will be available to a participant for each consecutive enrollment through program completion, withdrawal from the program or termination of employment, whichever occurs first. A participant may be removed from the pilot program if the participant does not maintain a minimum 2.0 GPA per term.

- This program is strictly for online degree programs and is not applicable to on ground courses or eligible for a change in modality.

- In exchange for the partial tuition exemption, a participant must enter into an agreement with the University to remain employed with LSU A&M for at least 12 months following completion of the program or withdrawal from the program.

- Any employee participant who voluntarily resigns employment with the University while a participant in the pilot program, or within 12 months of completion of the program or withdrawal from the program, will be obligated to repay some or all of the exempted tuition based on the schedule below:

Time is limited, so apply today! Classes start January 13, 2020.
