APPROVAL OF THE MINUTES – December 16, 2020, Staff Senate Meeting

A motion to accept the minutes was made by Senator Tammy Millican. The motion, seconded by Treasurer Catherine Herman, carried.

GUEST SPEAKER – JENNIE STEWART, TITLE IX COORDINATOR

President Jonathan Levesque introduced Jennie Stewart who is the Title IX and Cleary Coordinator for the LSU System. She is also currently serving as the Americans with Disability Acts (ADA) Coordinator for LSU A&M. Jennie Stewart thanked the Staff Senate for the invitation as she speaks to the full Senate today.

Jennie began by sharing a presentation regarding the scope of Title IX. As leadership for our campus, we need to have understanding that we have an:

- Opportunity and responsibility to our campus community
- To ensure that we are having experiences free of discrimination
- To provide a learning, working and living environment that promotes integrity, civility and mutual respect
- To set the tone for community expectations
- Folks should be able to do what they came here to do

The scope of Title IX is the sex based piece. There are other Titles that protect different statuses. Some people may think it is any kind of discrimination outside of this. Title IX is a limited scope and used to be thought of well that is why there is women’s athletics but now it is thought of as sexual assault which is that too but is bigger in the scope.
One piece of the focus of sex based discrimination is sexual misconduct which includes sexual assault and stalking as they are forms of sexual harassment. Other pieces include pregnancy and early parenting and perceived or actual gender based, LGBTQ.

LSU’s Permanent Memorandum (PM) 73 is the system policy regarding Sexual Misconduct where behaviors can include:

- Sexual Assault
- Video Voyeurism
- Dating/Interpersonal Violence
- Domestic Violence
- Quid Pro Quo
- Stalking
- Retaliation
- Video/Pictures without consent
- Severe, Pervasive, Objectively Offensive

Title IX – but not related to PM 73 include:

- Pregnancy or Parenting
- Athletics participation and opportunity
- Sex (or perceived sex)
- Opportunities in/out of the classroom
- Lactation/Breastfeeding
- Pregnancy Recovery

With regards to the scope of accessibility for people with disabilities:

- People need and deserve to be able to participate
- We’ve invited them in to our community for inclusion
- What values are we evidencing
- Accessibility is not just about accommodations but it’s an onus in planning events, learning and opportunities
- Forethought in what we’re doing
- What physical barriers might exist
- Statement welcoming limitations and needs
- Accommodations come after accessibility planning

With Title IX, which employee is responsible:

- Anyone in contact with students who isn’t privileged and in a privileged role such as a Counselor, Advocate, Psychologist or Ombudsperson
- The Responsible Employee must report directly to the Title IX Coordinator
- Importance of reporting is protecting their privacy, the accuracy and the timeliness
The importance of reporting includes;

- LSU is responsible for carrying out a response
- We can’t respond to what we don’t know
- We can respond to who we don’t know about

Once LSU has notice, we must:

- Provide supportive measures to parties
- Offer options of investigation (Title IX, Police, etc.)
- Remedy the effects
- Prevent recurrence

To report:

- Title IX Website https://www.lsu.edu/titleix/
- Phone or email to Coordinator/Deputy Coordinator
- Report does not equal investigation
- Complainant given options with the exception for a pattern, predatory behavior, threat, weapons, significant harm from violence

How to respond:

- Confidential (means doesn’t initiate a formal report)
- Lighthouse – Student Health Center
- STAR
- Confidential Advisors
- Law Enforcement
- LSUPD (jurisdiction limited)
- Institutional
- Online, in person, by phone to either Human Resource Management, Dean of Students, Student Advocacy & Accountability or the Title IX Coordinator

Some of the current happenings with regards to Title IX, we are going through an audit with Husch Blackwell Firm. The audit findings should be released in mid to late February. LSU has been through 2 other Audits, one in 2019-2020 and one that NASA did as LSU was one of their random choices. Their findings should have been released last October but Covid has delayed that report. Jennie shared that as leaders of our institution, the staffing model is for every 8-10 thousand members, the equity office should have 1 staff member. Throughout the LSU System we have about 55,000 people with 2 staff members. They are not only doing investigation, remedy, supportive measures but also doing training, education, response, policy, hearings, providing of advisors, institutional guidance and best practices. We really need more advocates on campus.
With regards to disability, we are currently in a Compliance to Transition Plan. We are working to rectify a 1993 mandate that we have not met. They are working with an external source with a 3-year plan that includes physical, programmatic and digital, staffing - outside of Disability Services, there is no full-time dedicated staff. Jennie encouraged member’s partnership as advisors. If members of Staff Senate are interested and would like to be trained as a group, please let her know.

Q: How can members get training to help as advisors?

A: If anyone is interested, contact Jennie Stewart. Training will be set-up for those interested which should take about 3 hours (half a day).

Q: How many active investigations are happening right now?

A: There are currently 5 cases being investigated at LSU A&M.

Q: How does that compare from Non-Covid to this past Covid pandemic year?

A: The numbers are not that vastly different but they are tending to not get reports until they are further down the pipeline, where physical violence or retaliation has already happened, so it seems that reporting is not happening until it becomes more severe.

Q: What were the findings from the 2019-2020 Audit?

A: The report was released internally to the Board of Supervisors and was not disclosed to the entire community.

Q: Where changes implemented?

A: No

Q: Is there any overlap between Title IX here at LSU and the Ethics Institute?

A: No, the ethics integrity piece is done by internal audit, so they just review ethic violations whereas we just handle sexual misconduct. There has not been any overlap.

President Jonathan Levesque thanked Jennie Stewart for attending today’s meeting.

PRESIDENT’S REPORT

President Jonathan Levesque reviewed relevant meetings in which he attended.

- Continuing to serve on the Renaming Building Committee which is essentially wrapping up with a report to be issues to the Board of Supervisors for their next meeting.
- Continuing to serve on IT Governance where there will be a new PMO process to purchase software with a new form. This is scheduled to be implemented within the coming weeks.
• Continuing to serve on the Staff Diversity Work Group
• Due to Verge Ausberry stepping down from the Presidential Search Committee, Jonathan reached out to the Board of Supervisors Executive Director Jason Droddy to express a concern that there is no staff representation from LSU A&M serving on the committee. There is a staff member from LSU Shreveport and LSU Alexandria which he explained will be the staff presentation on the committee.
• Regarding the LSU Broadcast email that went out yesterday evening around 7:00 p.m. about the Covid Vaccination Survey, Jonathan reached out to LSU Strategic Communications about the timing of this message as it read to fill out as soon as possible. When these emails come out with an ASAP, employees may feel anxious to have to get this done right away during their time off. Jonathan expressed a desire for those type of emails to be sent out during the work day.

This afternoon at 2:30 p.m., there is a Faculty & Staff Forum scheduled Jonathan encouraged everyone to attend as this is a chance to meet with the Leaders around campus and express our concerns and pose questions that we may have. Jonathan has a mandatory training scheduled at the same time but Treasurer Catherine Herman will be our advocate for today's forum. If you have any questions, please submit those to her so we are prepared.
